

Sec. 18-31. - General regulations.

No person shall go in or to any private residence during daylight hours in the city for the purpose of advertising or soliciting orders for the sale of or disposing of or peddling or hawking goods, wares, merchandise, services, subscriptions or memberships unless such person has received an unsolicited invitation or request from the lawful occupant of such residence, or unless such person has an unexpired certificate of registration issued to him by the chief of police in accordance with the provisions of section 18-33.

Sec. 18-32. - Hours limited.

No person shall go in or to any private residence after 9:00 p.m. in the city for the purpose of advertising or soliciting orders for the sale of or disposing of or peddling or hawking goods, wares, merchandise, services, subscriptions or memberships, unless such person has previously received an unsolicited invitation or request from the lawful occupant of such residence.

Sec. 18-33. - Application for registration; service fee.

(a) Any person may apply to the chief of police for a certificate of registration required by this article. A service fee of $3.00 shall be paid to the city with each application, and the applicant shall file with the application a true and complete set of the applicant's fingerprints and two recent photographs of the applicant at least four square inches in size.

(b) Each application shall be in writing under oath, and shall contain the following:

(1) The full name, age and residence address of the applicant;

(2) Whether applicant has ever been arrested or charged with any criminal offense, and if so, stating the nature of the offense, the time and place of the arrest or arrests, and the name and location of the court in which each charge was filed and a statement of the outcome of the charges;

(3) The mailing address of each residence or other place of habitation occupied by applicant during the three months next preceding the filing of the application;

(4) The name and address of every employer of applicant during the three months next preceding the filing of application, the name and address of applicant's present employer, if any, and if the employer is a corporation, the place of its incorporation shall be stated; if the applicant or his employer is doing business under a fictitious name the place of registration of such name shall be stated;

(5) A statement describing the goods, wares, merchandise, services, subscriptions or memberships dealt in by applicant.

(c) The application shall be accompanied by a true copy of all advertising and forms used or to be used by the applicant in his business.

Sec. 18-34. - Issuance of certificate; term; renewal.

As soon as each application required by this article is filed, it shall be examined with deliberate speed by the chief of police; and if it appears from such examination that the applicant has complied with all of the requirements of sections 18-31, 18-32 and 18-33, it shall be the duty of the chief of police to cause a certificate of registration to be issued to the applicant. The certificate shall be under the seal of the city and shall state the name of the applicant and that he has complied with the requirements of section 18-33. Such certificate shall be effective for a term of three months from the date of issuance, and upon application filed before its expiration may be renewed for a like term upon payment of a renewal fee.
